| Purpose of the cover

The purpose of this Policy is to provide insurance cover against certain unforeseen or unexpected events that may occur whilst an Insured Person is travelling. If You require further information, please contact Us or Your broker.

- Personal Liability and Legal Expenses cover
- Search and Rescue Benefits

| Significant risks

Possible risks associated with You holding this Policy include:

- Whether it provides the scope of cover You require. You should carefully read the Policy and take note of its terms, conditions and exclusions.
- Whether You can comply with the terms and conditions of the Policy. Failure to comply could result in Us not paying all or part of a claim.
- Your duty to Us is very important. If You have not disclosed relevant information, We may be entitled to decline a claim and this can have consequences on Your further insurance cover.

In certain circumstances, the Policy will not provide any cover to You. You must read the Policy for full details, including the exclusions which apply to each section and the General Exclusions which apply to all Policy sections. For example, the Policy does not cover:

- Medical and dental treatment provided in the Insured Person's Country of Residence;
- Deliberate exposure to needless danger;
- Legal liability arising out of the use of firearms, motor vehicles or animals; and
- Travel to Afghanistan, Belarus, Central African Republic, Chechnya, Cuba, Democratic Republic of Congo, Egypt, Iran, Iraq, Israel (West Bank, Gaza and Occupied Territories), Libya, Nigeria, North Korea, Russia, Somalia, South Sudan, Sudan, Syria, Ukraine and/or Yemen.

| Directors' and Executives' Private Travel

This Policy is designed to cover business travel. However, We will also cover Directors' and Executives' Private Travel that is declared to and accepted by Us. There is no cover at any time for Directors' and Executives' Private Travel which is not declared and noted on the Certificate of Insurance. The percentage of Directors' and Executives' Private Travel must not exceed 40% of all declared Journeys.

| How We calculate the premium

We consider several issues to calculate the premium. Some of the factors that influence the premium include:

- the sums insured;
- the average duration of trips to be taken;
- the destination(s) to which the Insured Person will be travelling;
- the Insured Person's medical history, age and claims history; and
- activities to be undertaken whilst travelling.

The total premium includes all government charges which are shown separately on the certificate. If You change Your Policy in any way after issue, You may be entitled to a premium refund or You may be asked to pay additional premium.

| How to apply for cover

To apply for cover, You will need to complete a proposal form which You can obtain from an insurance broker or distributor who has an agency agreement with Us. The broker/distributor can then approach Us to obtain a quotation on Your behalf. In some cases and at Our discretion, We may agree to provide a quotation and/or issue cover direct.

| Non payment of premium

You must pay the premium within the agreed credit terms or Your Policy may not be in force. When You take out the Policy, if You do not pay the premium by the due date or Your payment is dishonoured, then We may give You written notice to cancel the Policy and/or decline any claim(s) You have made. When You renew Your Policy, if You don't pay the renewal premium by the due date, the Policy will end and We may decline any claim(s) You have made.

| Limits of cover

Our total liability for all claims is limited to the amounts specified in each section of the Policy. In the event of duplicate insurance, We may only be liable for Our proportion of the claim.

| Limitations on the Benefits paid

There are limitations on the maximum amount We will pay for claims under the Policy during any one Period of Insurance. The Aggregate Limit of Liability noted in Your Certificate of Insurance represents the maximum amount We will pay for all claims during the Period of Insurance. If this amount is insufficient to cover all claims in full, the Benefit payable to each Insured Person will be proportionately reduced to ensure that the total payments do not exceed the Aggregate Limit of Liability. Additionally, there are individual sub-limits for specific Benefits payable under the Policy.

| Currency conversions

Settlement of claims for expenditure incurred overseas will be made at the official rate of conversion applicable at the date of the loss or expense. All Benefits are noted in Australian Dollars.

| Age limits

This Policy does not cover any person aged 75 years or older. In some instances, We may agree to insure a person who is aged over 75 years of age. This is at Our discretion and subject to Our agreement before the Policy is issued. If You require cover for a person aged 75 years or more, please complete a Supplementary Health Questionnaire and send it to Us for consideration. We will advise You if We agree to extend cover to this person and if so, on what terms before You decide whether to purchase the Policy. Section 8 (Personal Accident) provides for reduced Benefits in respect of Insured Persons aged less than 18 years or more than 65 years. Please refer to the Policy for further details.

| Renewal procedure

If this Policy is an annual contract, We will invite You to apply for renewal before it expires. At that time, We will ask You to provide updated travel estimates for the next twelve month period. Once You provide this information, We will determine if We can renew Your Policy. If We decide to offer renewal terms, We will provide these to You or Your intermediary in writing. Please note that Your duty to Us applies at every renewal of this Policy.

| How to make a claim

If You wish to make a claim, there are some important things You must do. For full details of how to make a claim, please refer to the Claims Procedure section of the Policy.

| Your duty to Us

Before You enter into an insurance contract, You have a duty to take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to Us when answering questions that We will ask You and providing Us with information. Before You enter into, vary or extend an insurance contract, We will ask You questions that are relevant to Our decision to insure You and on what terms.

You must take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to Us when answering those questions. For example, it is important that You answer Our questions fully and accurately, to the best of Your knowledge.

If You do not take reasonable care not to make a misrepresentation to Us, We may cancel Your Policy or deny or reduce the amount We will pay You for a claim, in accordance with Our rights at law.

If You make a misrepresentation to Us which is fraudulent, We can:

1. Treat Your Policy as if it never existed (i.e. avoid the contract), unless We would have entered into the contract for the same premium and on the same terms anyway; or
2. If We are not entitled to avoid the contract or We decide not to avoid the contract, We can reduce the amount that We pay You for a claim so that We are put in the position We would have been in if You had not breached Your duty to Us, in accordance with Our rights at law.

This Benefit is conditional on the provision of medical evidence from a Medical Practitioner certifying that the Insured Person is unable to perform domestic duties and provided the domestic assistance is not supplied by the Insured Person, their Partner, their Close Relative or any other person who ordinarily resides with the Insured Person. The maximum period for which We will pay under this section is 26 weeks and the Benefit is only payable in respect of additional costs that would not have otherwise been incurred.

| Section 29: Coronavirus COVID-19 Benefit

Cover under this Policy is extended to include claims arising from Coronavirus COVID-19 under section 1 (Cancellation and Curtailment) and section 5 (Overseas Medical, Repatriation and Additional Expenses) as noted below.

Except as amended by this section, cover for claims arising from Coronavirus COVID-19 are subject to the same conditions and exclusions as section 1 (Cancellation and Curtailment) and section 5 (Overseas Medical, Repatriation and Additional Expenses) in addition to the conditions and exclusions noted in this section.

Cover under this Section 29 starts from the date and time We issue the Policy to You if this is within 24 hours after booking the Insured Person's Journey. If You did not purchase this Policy within 24 hours after booking the Insured Person's Journey, then We insure You under this section 29 from 7 days after the date and time We issue the Policy to You.

Section 1 – Cancellation or Curtailment

We will pay up to the amount shown in the Certificate of Insurance in the event the Insured Person's Journey is necessarily and unavoidably cancelled, cut short or rearranged because:

- i) The Insured Person contracts Coronavirus COVID-19 in Australia and a Medical Practitioner certifies that the Insured Person is medically unfit to undertake the Pre-Booked Journey. The diagnosis must be confirmed by a PCR test or a rapid antigen test (RAT) taken under medical supervision or by a Medical Practitioner.
- ii) The Insured Person is ordered by the Australian government or a state health authority into mandatory quarantine or self-isolation because the Insured Person lives with someone who has contracted Coronavirus COVID-19 and the Insured Person is deemed to be a household contact. This order must be made after the Policyholder or the Insured Person booked the Journey or purchased the Policy (whichever is the later). This quarantine or self-isolation order must still be in force at the time of the Insured Person's scheduled departure so as to prevent them from undertaking the Pre-Booked Journey.
- iii) The Insured Person's Partner or Close Relative contracts Coronavirus COVID-19 in Australia and a Medical Practitioner certifies in writing that the level of infection is life threatening.
- iv) The Insured Person is ordered into mandatory quarantine by a government or public health authority during the Journey because the Insured Person has contracted Coronavirus COVID-19.
- v) The Insured Person is denied boarding of Public Transport due to the detection of possible Coronavirus COVID-19 symptoms.

Section 5 – Overseas Medical, Repatriation and Additional Expenses

If the Insured Person had planned to utilise free-of-charge accommodation during the Journey (e.g. staying with friends and family) and the Insured Person needs to arrange alternative accommodation because they or their host contracts Coronavirus COVID-19, We will only pay alternative accommodation costs for the mandatory quarantine period. This benefit is limited to the cost of the alternative accommodation or $250 per night (whichever is the lesser).
2. If the Insured Person contracts Coronavirus COVID-19 while travelling and can remain in their Pre-Booked accommodation during their isolation period, there is no benefit payable for costs the Insured Person would have otherwise incurred. If the Insured Person has to leave their Pre-Booked accommodation due to Coronavirus COVID-19 infection, any refund or credit available for their Pre-Booked and unused accommodation will be offset against the claim for isolation/quarantine accommodation.
3. If the Insured Person incurs additional travelling expenses (e.g. new airfares to travel post-recovery, any refund available on their original travel arrangements will be payable to Us or deducted from the claim. If any credit is available to the Policyholder or the Insured Person on unused original travel arrangements, this will be offset against any claim payable under this section for additional costs incurred.
4. This section will respond to medical, additional accommodation/quarantine/isolation and travel expenses necessarily incurred due to the Insured Person contracting or being exposed to Coronavirus COVID-19. It does not pay for costs which the Policyholder or the Insured Person would have always incurred – e.g food, beverages and sustenance expenses. It also does not pay for discretionary costs the Insured Person incurs during the isolation period including entertainment, alcohol, internet and phone charges etc.
5. Where the "Do not travel" warning relates any other reason and/or in addition to Coronavirus COVID-19, General Exclusion 35 is not waived and We will not pay any claim arising from or related to travel to that destination.

For cancellation or curtailment of an international Journey if the government of the country the Insured Person wishes to enter imposes border restrictions or closes its borders so that the Insured Person is prevented from travelling as planned and/or entering the country due to the existence or perceived threat of Coronavirus COVID-19 transmission.

Each section of the Policy has conditions and they must be read in conjunction with the following General Conditions which apply to all sections unless otherwise stated. If any term, condition, exclusion or endorsement or part thereof is found to be invalid or unenforceable, the remainder will be in full force and effect.

1. The Policyholder and the Insured Person must provide assistance and co-operate with Us and/or Our representatives including in obtaining or providing any records We deem necessary to evaluate the claim. In no event will We be liable to pay any claim hereunder unless the Policyholder and the Insured Person fully co-operate with Us and/or Our representatives in the investigation of a claim.
2. If the Policyholder and/or the Insured Person fail to comply with any obligation to act in a certain way specified in the terms, provisions, conditions and endorsements of this Policy, it may prejudice Your and/or the Insured Person's entitlement to successfully claim under this Policy.
3. If You or anyone acting on Your behalf makes any false or fraudulent claim or supports a claim by false or fraudulent document, device or statement, We may decline Your claim and cancel this Policy.
4. The maximum duration for any one continuous Journey shall not exceed 6 months. We will not cover the Policyholder and/or the Insured Person for any part of the Journey where it exceeds 6 months in duration unless agreed by Us in writing.
5. This Policy is issued on the condition that You have no knowledge of any other corporate travel Insurance in force except as specifically declared to Us at inception or agreed by Us during the Period of Insurance.
6. If the Insured Person has not returned to their Country of Residence before the expiration of a Journey for reasons which are beyond their control, this Policy will remain in force for up to a further three (3) months or until return, whichever is the earlier, without additional premium. In the event of the Insured Person being victim of Hijack or Kidnap, cover will continue whilst they are subject to the control of the person(s) or their associates making the Hijack and during travel direct to their Country of Residence and/or original destination up to 12 months from the date of Hijack.
7. This Policy is governed by the laws of the Commonwealth of Australia and the state or territory in which it was issued.
8. We shall not be deemed to provide cover and nor shall We be liable to pay any claim or provide any Benefit under this Policy to the extent that the provision of such cover, payment of such claim or provision of such benefit would expose Us to any sanction, prohibition or restriction under United Nations resolutions or the trade or economic sanctions, laws or regulations of the European Union, Australia, United Kingdom or United States of America.
9. All certificates, information and evidence required by Us will be provided at Your or the Insured Person's expense.

It is a condition of this Policy that following such event, the wage roll, number of Insured Persons or travel pattern shall not increase by more than 10%. Where such an event results in an increase of more than 10%, We agree to extend cover to that entity for fourteen (14) days during which time You shall provide relevant additional information including any information required by Us and pay any additional premium required by Us. If this information is not forthcoming after fourteen (14) days, cover in respect of the new entity shall be deemed to have never been in force.

Further, any change to an Insured Person's occupation in which greater risk may be incurred than in the occupation originally disclosed must be notified to Us and agreed in writing. 13. An Insured Person has a right to recover under this Policy only through Section 48 of the Insurance Contracts Act 1984 (Cth) (the Act) and is not a party to the contract of insurance. Only the Policyholder (the insured entity) can vary or cancel the Policy. Section 48 of the Act allows a third party beneficiary under a contract of general insurance to claim from an insurer, in accordance with the contract, the amount of any loss suffered by them even though they are not a party to the contract. Any benefit payable under the Policy will be paid to the Policyholder (the insured entity) or if an Insured Person suffered the loss, that benefit will be paid to the Insured Person. Under no circumstances will We pay both the Policyholder and an Insured Person in respect of the same event or loss.
14. If the aggregate amount of all sums payable under this Policy exceeds the Aggregate Limit of Liability, the Benefits payable to the Policyholder or each Insured Person shall be proportionally reduced until the total of all Benefits payable hereunder is equal to the Aggregate Limit of Liability.

| CLAIMS CONDITIONS

These conditions apply to claims and are in addition to the General Conditions which apply to the Policy.

Claim notification

You must advise Us of any possible claim as soon as reasonably practical and within one (1) calendar month of the Insured Person's return to their Country of Residence.

If there is a delay in claim notification, We may reduce the amount We pay by the amount of prejudice We suffer due to the delay.

Proof of loss

You must prove Your claim. This means You must provide independent documentary evidence to prove that You have suffered a loss which is covered by the Policy.

You must also provide evidence to prove that You owned the claimed item, its age and value.

Where You are claiming reimbursement of costs incurred, You must provide Us with invoices and/or receipts to verify the expenditure.

You must give Us any documents, letters, notices, medical certificates, medical records and reports, itemised invoices, original receipts, rental agreements, repair quotes, tickets, baggage tags/receipts, proof Your device's IMEI (International Mobile Equipment Identity) number has been blocked, mobile call logs or any other documentation that We reasonably ask You to provide to evidence Your loss/claim. This will be at Your expense.

Where You cannot provide evidence or proof that We require, We may not pay Your claim or We may reduce the amount We pay.

Following notice of a claim, the Insured Person shall, when relevant to Our consideration of the claim, provide all authorisations necessary to obtain their medical records. We have the right to have the Insured Person examined by a physician and/or vocational expert of Our choice and at Our expense when and as often as We may reasonably request. If lawful, We may also arrange for an autopsy to be performed.

Claim Settlements

Where You have incurred costs and are claiming reimbursement, We will pay the claim amount (less any applicable Excess) to the Australian bank account You nominate at the time of submitting Your claim.

If You ask Us to pay another party on Your behalf (e.g. a hospital or accommodation provider), this is subject to Our agreement. If We do not agree to pay another party on Your behalf, We will pay You the approved amount so that You can then pay the other party. Where We agree to pay another party on Your behalf, We will advise You whether You need to pay an Excess to Us so that we can pay the approved cost in full or whether You need to pay the Excess direct to the other party.

All claim settlements are calculated based on the official exchange rate that applied on the date the expense was incurred.

We may at Our option discharge any liability under this Policy by replacing or repairing any article(s) which have been lost or damaged or by issuing a credit voucher.

Benefits and Depreciation

The most We will pay for a claim is the limit shown in the Certificate of Insurance (less any applicable Excess and/or depreciation).

In settling Your property claim, We may choose to pay any of the following:

1. the value of the claimed item at the date of loss, theft or damage (i.e. the item's market/used value);
2. the original cost price of the claimed item from which We will deduct an amount for wear and tear/loss of value;
3. the cost of repairing the claimed item; or
4. the applicable sub-limit.

If Your claim is for multiple items, We may choose to settle Your claim using a number of the above options. If We pay You the depreciated value of an item, the following rates of depreciation will apply.

Item	Rate
Clothing	15%
Footwear, sporting and leisure equipment	20%
Baggage, suitcases, backpacks and other items used to carry property	20%
Toiletries, personal care items, skincare products, make-up, cosmetics, perfume	50%
Medication and perishable items	50%
Valuables (as defined but not jewellery made with precious metals)	15%
Electronic Equipment (as defined) – aged less than 12 months	0%
Electronic Equipment (as defined) – aged more than 12 months	20%

The above depreciation rates apply to each year of age or part thereof up to a maximum of 80% of the item's original cost price.

For items not listed in the above table, We will apply the rate specified for the most similar type of item.

We will not pay more than the original cost price You paid for an item. To ensure a fair and reasonable settlement, We will take into account the type of item, its age, condition and the degree of damage sustained.

A pair or related set of items is considered to be one item, no matter the quantity. For example, a camera body and its lenses, tripod, and camera accessories (attached or not) are a single item. Other types of items We consider to be one item include a pair of hearing aids, a pair of earrings, and a necklace with a pendant. This rule applies to all types of items, regardless of their size or quantity.

Other insurance and contribution

If at the time of any incident which results in a claim under this Policy, there is another insurance policy covering the same loss, damage, expense or liability, You must give us details.

If You make a claim under one insurance and You are paid the full amount of Your claim, You cannot make a claim under the other insurance. If You make a claim under any other insurance and You are not paid the full amount of Your claim, We will pay the difference, up to the amount this Policy covers You for, provided Your claim is covered by this Policy.

We may seek contribution to amounts We have paid, or must pay, from Your other insurer. You must give us any information We reasonably ask for to help Us make a claim from Your other insurer.

Losses recoverable from non-insurance sources

If Your loss has been caused by another party, You are required to make every reasonable effort to recover Your loss from the responsible party. If that party does not pay You the full amount of Your claim, You can claim the difference under Your Policy (provided the loss is covered by the Policy).

If this Policy covers any loss, event or liability that is also covered under a health, medical or statutory scheme or otherwise recoverable via any other source, We will only pay the difference between what is payable by that alternative source and what You or the Insured Person would be entitled to recover under the terms of this Policy and where permitted by law.

If You do not have Pre-Booked return travel arrangements

If an insured Journey is curtailed for any reason covered by this Policy and the Insured Person does not hold a ticket for return travel to their Country of Residence, the cost of a one-way ticket to their Country of Residence will be deducted from any settlement effected under this Policy. This deduction will be assessed as the published fare(s) available for purchase on the date of the Insured Person's early return to their Country of Residence and of comparable standard to their Pre-Booked travel arrangements.

Subrogation and recovery

We are entitled at Our own expense to issue proceedings in Your name to recover compensation or secure an indemnity from any third party in respect of any loss or damage for which We have indemnified You under this Policy. You must assist Us to obtain or pursue a recovery or contribution from a third party or insurers by providing all information and documentation We reasonably and necessarily require.

If You have suffered uninsured losses, We may agree to include these in any recovery action We decide to take. Where We agree to include Your uninsured losses, You may need to contribute to the legal costs We incur as a result.

You must not waive any right to seek compensation from a party who is responsible for causing You loss, damage or liability. If You enter into any agreement to waive the responsible party's liability to You for loss, damage or liability, We may not compensate You.

Claim settlement refunds

You must refund any amounts that We have paid to You or on Your behalf that are not covered by this insurance within one calendar month of Our request or as soon as reasonably possible.

If We accept Your claim and You later receive compensation from any other source for the same losses/costs, You must reimburse Us the amount You receive from the other source (up to the amount We paid for Your claim).

If We pay You for lost or stolen property and it is subsequently recovered and returned to You, You must reimburse Us the amount We paid to You for that loss.

If You are entitled to a refund in respect of forfeited Pre-Booked travel arrangements and We have incurred costs for You to travel other than as scheduled, You must transfer or pay the refund to Us.

Salvage

Any items which become the subject of a claim for loss or damage must be retained and not disposed of. If required, You must forward damaged items to Us for Our inspection at Your own expense. All such items will become Our property following acceptance and settlement of Your claim.

We may dispose of the item(s) or We may sell them and retain the proceeds. We may also agree to sell the item(s) to You provided You agree to pay market value.
